The Armed Man – A Mass for Peace was composed by Karl Jenkins in 2000 and has subsequently received almost 1000 performances.

The work incorporates a wide variety of styles and moods from pathos to exhilaration, polyphony to controlled musical chaos and delivers its anti-war message in music which is both accessible and hauntingly moving.

At its most powerful in live performance, we very much hope that Singers and Audience alike will enjoy and be moved by one of the best known of all contemporary choral works.

John Naylor has been Music Director of Nantwich Choral Society since 2005 and is one of the North West's most experienced choral directors. A former Choral Scholar of St John's College Cambridge and professional singer with the choir of The Chapel Royal at H.M.Tower of London and The Monteverdi Choir he is also Music Director of The Lydian Singers and conducts The Open University Chapel Choir. John is well known for his friendly and encouraging leadership of choral singers of all ages and all abilities.

The Northern Concordia Ensemble on this occasion includes Simon Russell (organ), Vivian Redfern (piano), and three trumpets, cello and flute. The extensive percussion section of Tubular Bells, Mark Tree, Windchimes, Triangle, Chekere, Tambourine, Snare Drum, Field Drum, Tom Toms, 3 Timpani, Cymbals and Drum Kit will be played by David Lewis, Michael Harper and James Taylor.
