SINGING DAY

St Mary's Church, Acton

(near Nantwich)

Saturday 4th October 2014

9.30 - 16.30

Music Director
John Naylor

Accompanist
Simon Russell

Encore! - A Singing day with a real difference

Come and start the new Music Season with a wonderful selection of choral music often sung as Encores at the end of concerts. Some of it is serious, much of it is humorous and all of it is really enjoyable. The music to be explored during the day will be taken from

Encores for Choirs 1

edited by Peter Gritton and published by OUP

(not as originally advertised due to circumstances outside our control).

The day will include Bob Chilcott's arrangements of Londonderry Air, Steal Away and Home Sweet Home, and John Rutter's Let's begin again and Home is a special kind of feeling. It's almost certain that Picnicking Teddy Bears, Sullivan's the Lost Chord, Farmer MacDonald, The Goslings and The Mermaid will all make an appearance. And if you'd like a change from singing, the Geographical Fugue for speaking chorus is an experience not to be missed. There is music to encourage novice singers and some music to challenge more experienced musicians. To be effective, we will strive to perform it all well!

To enjoy this special singing day you'll need an interest in choral music at whatever level and a desire to explore some enjoyably unusual repertoire. You'll have an opportunity to develop your singing skills in purposeful but informal sessions, no matter what your level of ability. Oh – a sense of humour will help a lot!

We very much hope you can join us for what promises to be a really enjoyable Singing Day.
